PAY ENTRY BASE DATE WAS COMPUTED ON THE FOLLOWING SERVICE OF ABOVE OFFICER:

<input type="checkbox"/> ENLISTED USN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> WARRANT USN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> COMMISSIONED USN	<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/> ENLISTED USNR	<input type="checkbox"/> WARRANT USNR	<input type="checkbox"/> COMMISSIONED USNR	<input type="checkbox"/>

THE PAY ENTRY BASE DATE IS THE ACTUAL DATE OF COMMENCEMENT OF ALL CREDITABLE SERVICE IF ALL SERVICE HAS BEEN CONTINUOUS. IF SERVICE HAS BEEN BROKEN, IT IS THE HYPOTHETICAL DATE UPON WHICH SERVICE WOULD HAVE BEGUN HAD ALL SERVICE BEEN CONTINUOUS. TO ESTABLISH THIS HYPOTHETICAL DATE, THE TOTAL OF ALL PRIOR CREDITABLE SERVICE IS SUBTRACTED FROM THE DATE OF COMMENCEMENT OF CONTINUOUS NAVAL SERVICE.

The credit values shown for summer term and practice cruise work are the assignment of time.

All students at the Naval Academy pursue the same course of instruction which is along engineering lines leading to a Bachelor of Science degree. The students are then assigned to the U. S. Navy. In the Department of Service, however, the students are assigned to the U. S. Navy. The Department of Service includes a substantial amount of work in the U. S. Navy.

MEMORANDUM FOR RECIPIENTS OF THE PRISONER OF WAR MEDAL

In accordance with your request, it is a pleasure to forward the enclosed Prisoner of War Medal.

This medal was authorized by Congress for any person who served honorably as a prisoner of war after April 5, 1917. It is estimated that 142,000 United States members were held as prisoners in World War I, World War II, the Korean Conflict, and the Vietnam Conflict. The medal recognizes the special service prisoners of war gave to their country and the suffering and anguish they endured while incarcerated.

The United States Army's Institute of Heraldry was tasked to design the medal. Designs were solicited from the Military Services, veteran organizations and private citizens. Over 300 proposals were submitted. A Joint Service Panel reviewed all of the proposals and selected the design submitted by Mr. Jay C. Morris, a civilian employee of the Department of the Army.

On the front of the medal is an eagle, symbol of the United States and the American spirit. Although surrounded by barbed wire and bayonet points, it stands with pride and dignity, continually on the alert for the opportunity to obtain freedom, symbolizing the hope that upholds the spirit of the prisoner of war. On the reverse, below the words "Awarded to," is space where the recipient or next of kin may engrave the prisoner of war's name. Below it is an inscription naming the purpose of the award, "For honorable service while a prisoner of war." The shield is from the coat of arms of the United States of America.

The public law authorizing the Prisoner of War Medal specifies that the medal shall be accorded a position of precedence in relation to other awards and decorations, immediately following decorations awarded for individual heroism, meritorious achievement or service, and before any other service medal, campaign medal or service ribbon authorized to be displayed.

Please accept this medal with my best wishes.

Subj: Aviation Indoctrination Field Trip; appreciation of

1. This Unit participated in the NROTC Aviation Indoctrination Field Trip during the period 22 - 25 January. Observations of the escort officers and comments of the midshipmen have all been to the effect that the indoctrination was conducted in an outstanding manner. Indications are that many of the NROTC midshipmen were influenced favorably toward flight training as their first duty preference upon being commissioned.
2. The participating civilian faculty member was very favorably impressed with the entire operation.
3. Accordingly, appreciation is expressed for the excellent services received in connection with the AFT and particularly for the assistance and attention to arrangements made by (b)(6) and Lt. McCain.

Dear Sir:

I would like to thank you for the invitation to tour your naval station extended to me through (b)(6) of our ROTC program. The trip was very educational and highly successful, mainly through the efforts of (b)(6), Lieutenant J. McCain and (b)(6). These gentlemen did everything to make our stay enjoyable and I deeply appreciate their efforts.

I was quite impressed with the entire station, the psychological testing, air medical research program and the carrier Lexington. I shall be more than happy to suggest and encourage a naval career to capable young men whenever possible. Again I cannot praise too highly the above named gentlemen for their efforts on our part.

Subject: Appreciation for services rendered by LT John S. McCain,
(b)(6) 71218

1. During the period 20 Apr 1964 to 1 May 1964 LT John S. McCain was assigned temporary additional duty as pilot of a T-28 to assist a Naval Research Laboratory group in the collection of cloud physics data in the vicinity of Washington, D.C. His duties involved considerable flying and the frequent landing of his aircraft to permit his continuing presence to obtain photographs of important and temporary cloud formations and clouds.

LT McCain's performance in an outstanding manner. His report on the mission was most helpful in the collection of cloud physics data. His report also indicated a great willingness to perform a difficult task and a willingness to put the job first. LT McCain's performance was in accord with the traditions of the Naval Service.

This letter is to be forwarded with LT McCain's next report to his permanent official record.

Subj: Letter of Commendation; award of

1. When USS PORRESTAL completed a nine month overhaul and Air Wing SEVENTEEN deployed aboard; a maximum effort was needed to make the ship/air wing a combat fighting team. Areas of immediate concern included the management of strike warfare and the development of an air wing tactical doctrine. A major consideration in strike warfare management was the concept of targeting, which encompassed not only target selection but management of strike assets and analysis of results. To ensure the successful execution and accomplishment of a strike mission, whether training or combat, an Air Wing Tactical Board and a PORRESTAL/CVW-17 Tactical Intelligence Targeting Board were formed and staffed by individual squadron representatives of Air Wing SEVENTEEN. Each squadron representative was chosen for his exceptional knowledge, experience and tactical expertise in strike warfare and the capabilities of his type aircraft.
2. As one of the few members of both the Tactics Board and Tactical Intelligence Targeting Board you contributed immeasurably to the culmination of a ship/air wing combat fighting team. You spent long arduous hours with the Tactics Board in researching, developing, and evaluating combat tactics. Daily meetings of the Targeting Board were conducted to assess lines of communications, to provide inputs of long-range interdiction planning, target selection, weaponeering, post strike analysis, requirements for combat support aircraft external to air wing assets, and submission of the daily strike plan for execution. All of this was done in addition to your assigned squadron duties.
3. The outstanding achievements of both the Tactical Intelligence Targeting Board and Tactics Board are well known to me and are a source of great pride. It is with deep respect for your professional ability and selfless devotion to duty that I commend you for your part in making these boards effective organizations.
4. A copy of this letter will be made a permanent part of your service record.

Subj: Letter of Commendation

1. It is with great pleasure that I commend you for your meritorious performance on 29 July 1967 while attached to Attack Squadron FORTY-SIX on board USS FORRESTAL (CVA-59) located in the Gulf of Tonkin. At approximately 1050 a fire broke out on the flight deck which was spotted with aircraft loaded with heavy ordnance, preparing to launch at 1100 for a strike against targets in North Vietnam. Fire swept through the parked aircraft causing bombs to detonate and fuel cells to explode, turning the after one-third of the flight deck and several below deck areas into a roaring inferno, causing severe damage to the ship and aircraft and inflicting heavy personnel casualties.
2. After you abandoned your own burning aircraft and were clear of the fire, you stopped to aid an injured fellow pilot. Knowing well the danger involved, you proceeded toward the pilot until a bomb exploded, killing him and injuring yourself. Your courageous actions were in keeping with the highest traditions of the United States Naval Service.

1. When USS FORRESTAL completed a nine month overhaul and Air Wing SEVENTEEN deployed aboard, a maximum effort was needed to make the ship/air wing a combat fighting team. Areas of immediate concern included the management of strike warfare and the development of an air wing tactical doctrine. A major consideration in strike warfare management was the concept of targeting, which encompassed not only target selection but management of strike assets and analysis of results. To ensure the successful execution and accomplishment of a strike mission, whether training or combat, an Air Wing Tactical Board and a FORRESTAL/CVW-17 Tactical Intelligence Targeting Board were formed and staffed by individual squadron representatives of Air Wing SEVENTEEN. Each squadron representative was chosen for his exceptional knowledge, experience and tactical expertise in strike warfare and the capabilities of his type aircraft.
2. As one of the few members of both the Tactics Board and Tactical Intelligence Targeting Board you contributed immeasurably to the culmination of a ship/air wing combat fighting team. You spent long arduous hours with the Tactics Board in researching, developing, and evaluating combat tactics. Daily meetings of the Targeting Board were conducted to assess lines of communications, to provide inputs of long-range interdiction planning, target selection, weaponeering, post strike analysis, requirements for combat support aircraft external to air wing assets, and submission of the daily strike plan for execution. All of this was done in addition to your assigned squadron duties.
3. The outstanding achievements of both the Tactical Intelligence Targeting Board and Tactics Board are well known to me and are a source of great pride. It is with deep respect for your professional ability and selfless devotion to duty that I commend you for your part in making these boards effective organizations.

Subj: Chief of Naval Operations Safety Award for Attack Aircraft (Prop)
Fiscal Year 1961

The Chief of Naval Operations safety award for attack aircraft (prop) has been awarded to Attack Squadron SIXTY FIVE for its' accident free record during fiscal year 1961.

This is the second consecutive accident free year flown by the squadron. Over 15,500 flight hours have been logged since the last accident in May 1959. 1668 day and 568 night carrier landings were made in fiscal '61 while flying 7473 hours.

An achievement of this stature is the direct result of professional competence and 100% teamwork combined with an aggressive safety program.

I commend you on your contribution to the second successful year of intensive operations without accident. May God continue his blessings on you.

Subj: CMC Safety Award FY-61

Ref: (a) COMNAVAIRLANT NOTE 3590 of 5 August 1961 Subj: CMC Aviation
Safety Award

1. By reference (a) Carrier Air Group SIX was awarded the CMC Safety
Award for Fiscal Year 1961.

2. As a member of Attack Squadron SIXTY FIVE and Carrier Air Group SIX you contributed materially to the outstanding safety record achieved during fiscal year 1961. This record is especially significant since the majority of the year's air operations were conducted while ship-based aboard USS INTREPID (CVA-11). Because of your part in this achievement it is appropriate that you should share in the honor and distinction pertaining to the award.

3. Please accept my appreciation for a job well done. It is requested that your reporting senior append a copy of this letter to your next report of fitness.
